Dear Secretary,

I had a brief phone conversation with Tamara Preiss of the Wireline Competition Bureau this morning concerning Docket No. 93-193. I discussed GVNW's concerns about the practical issues that would be involved in issuing refunds for an issue that is twelve years old.

We discussed the difficulty of identifying the appropriate companies involved, since many companies have gone out of business or been merged with other companies. Tamara mentioned the possible use of a rate adjustment instead of a refund if the commission finds that the companies were over compensated. This solution would not be supported by GVNW Consulting, Inc.

Sincerely,

Jeff Gough
